St. Mark's School of Texas
Dallas, Texas

1933-1934

A picture of the first student body and faculty, 1933. Doc Nelson is in the second row.

a small private school was founded just off Preston Road. At first known as the Texas Country Day
School, it later became Saint Mark's.*

*The school grew.
New buildings and facilities helped it win recognition as one of the nation's best prep schools.*

we still have people.

To the Class of 1963:

Something is apparent on the St. Mark's campus. There are more activities than ever before, and, at the same time, the general quality of these activities is improving. I find the academic attitude to be better than the faculty ever expected. General deportment has never been better. All of this adds up to a most satisfactory school year.

The quality is not limited to studies and behavior. The ReMarker has been excellent. The play, Mr. Roberts, was one of the best ever at St. Mark's. The athletic teams have been successful. Even the Talent Show was greatly improved. This list could go on and on.

It would be easy to credit the faculty and the entire student body for the spirit which is showing itself. However, the one group which is most responsible might be lost sight of. The Class of 1963 deserves a lion's share of the praise. You have set the tone. You have provided the leadership. A nicer and more efficient class has never graced this campus.

Thank you,

Thomas B Hartmann

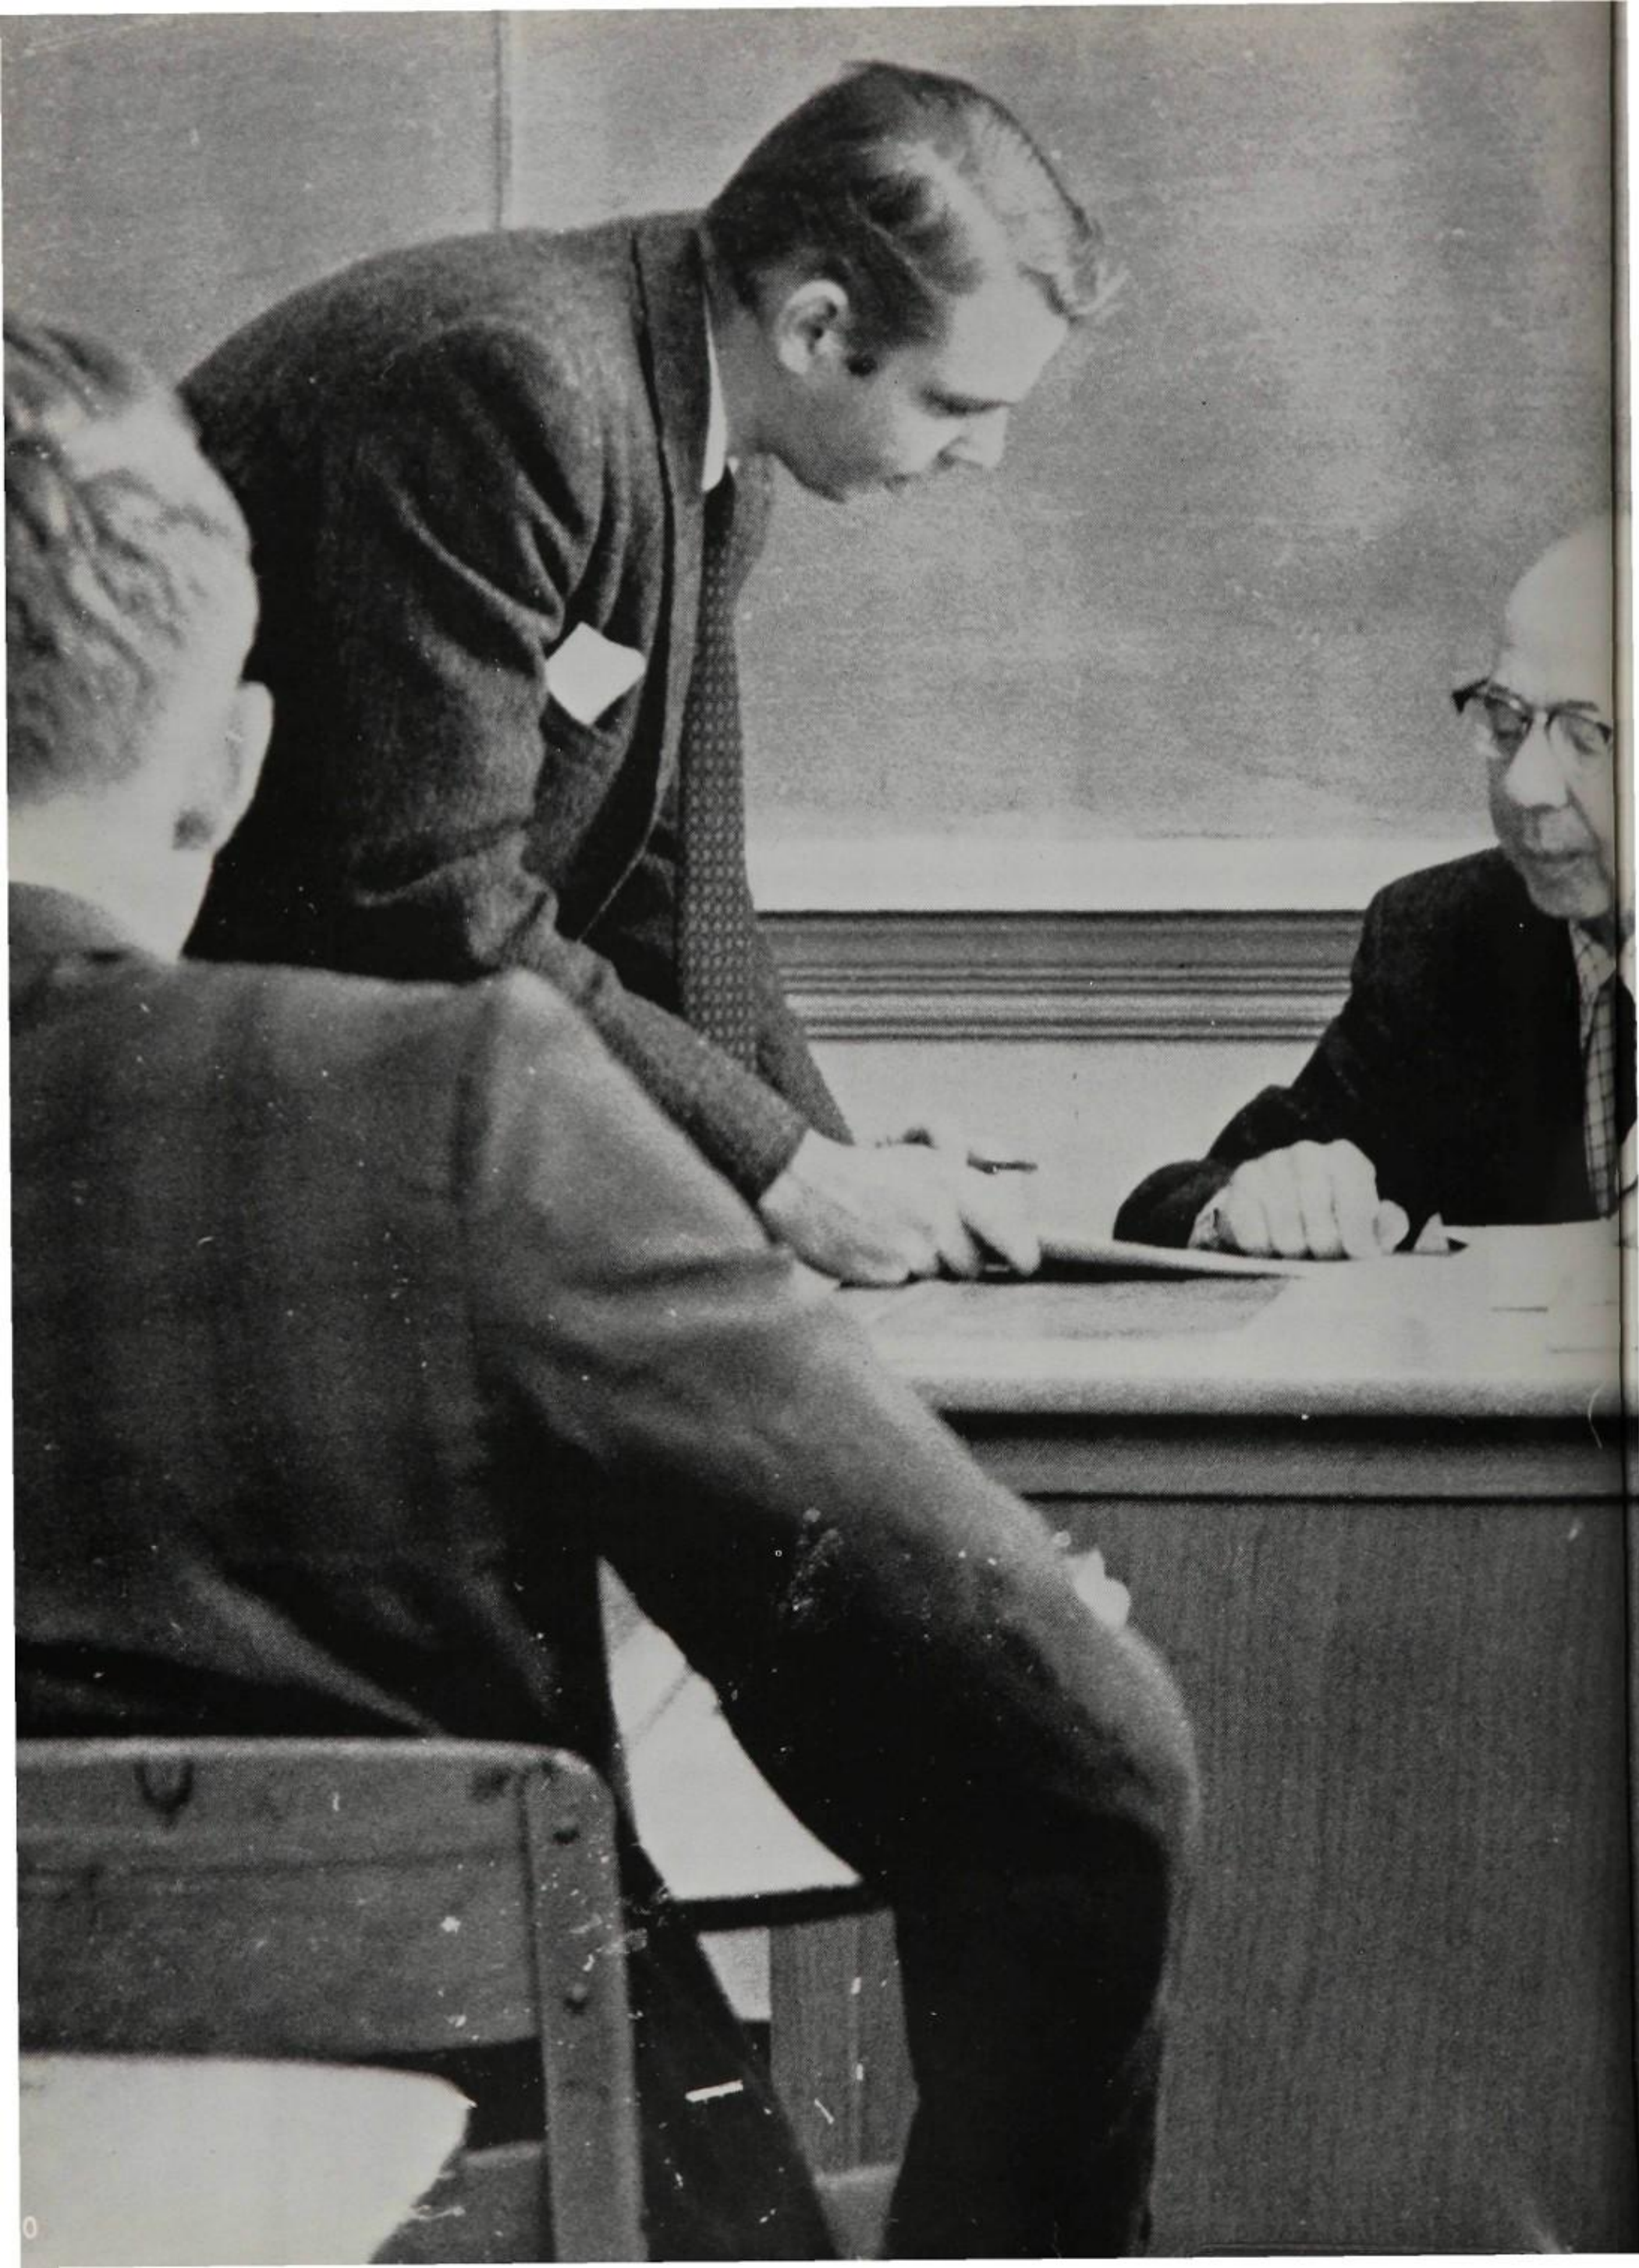

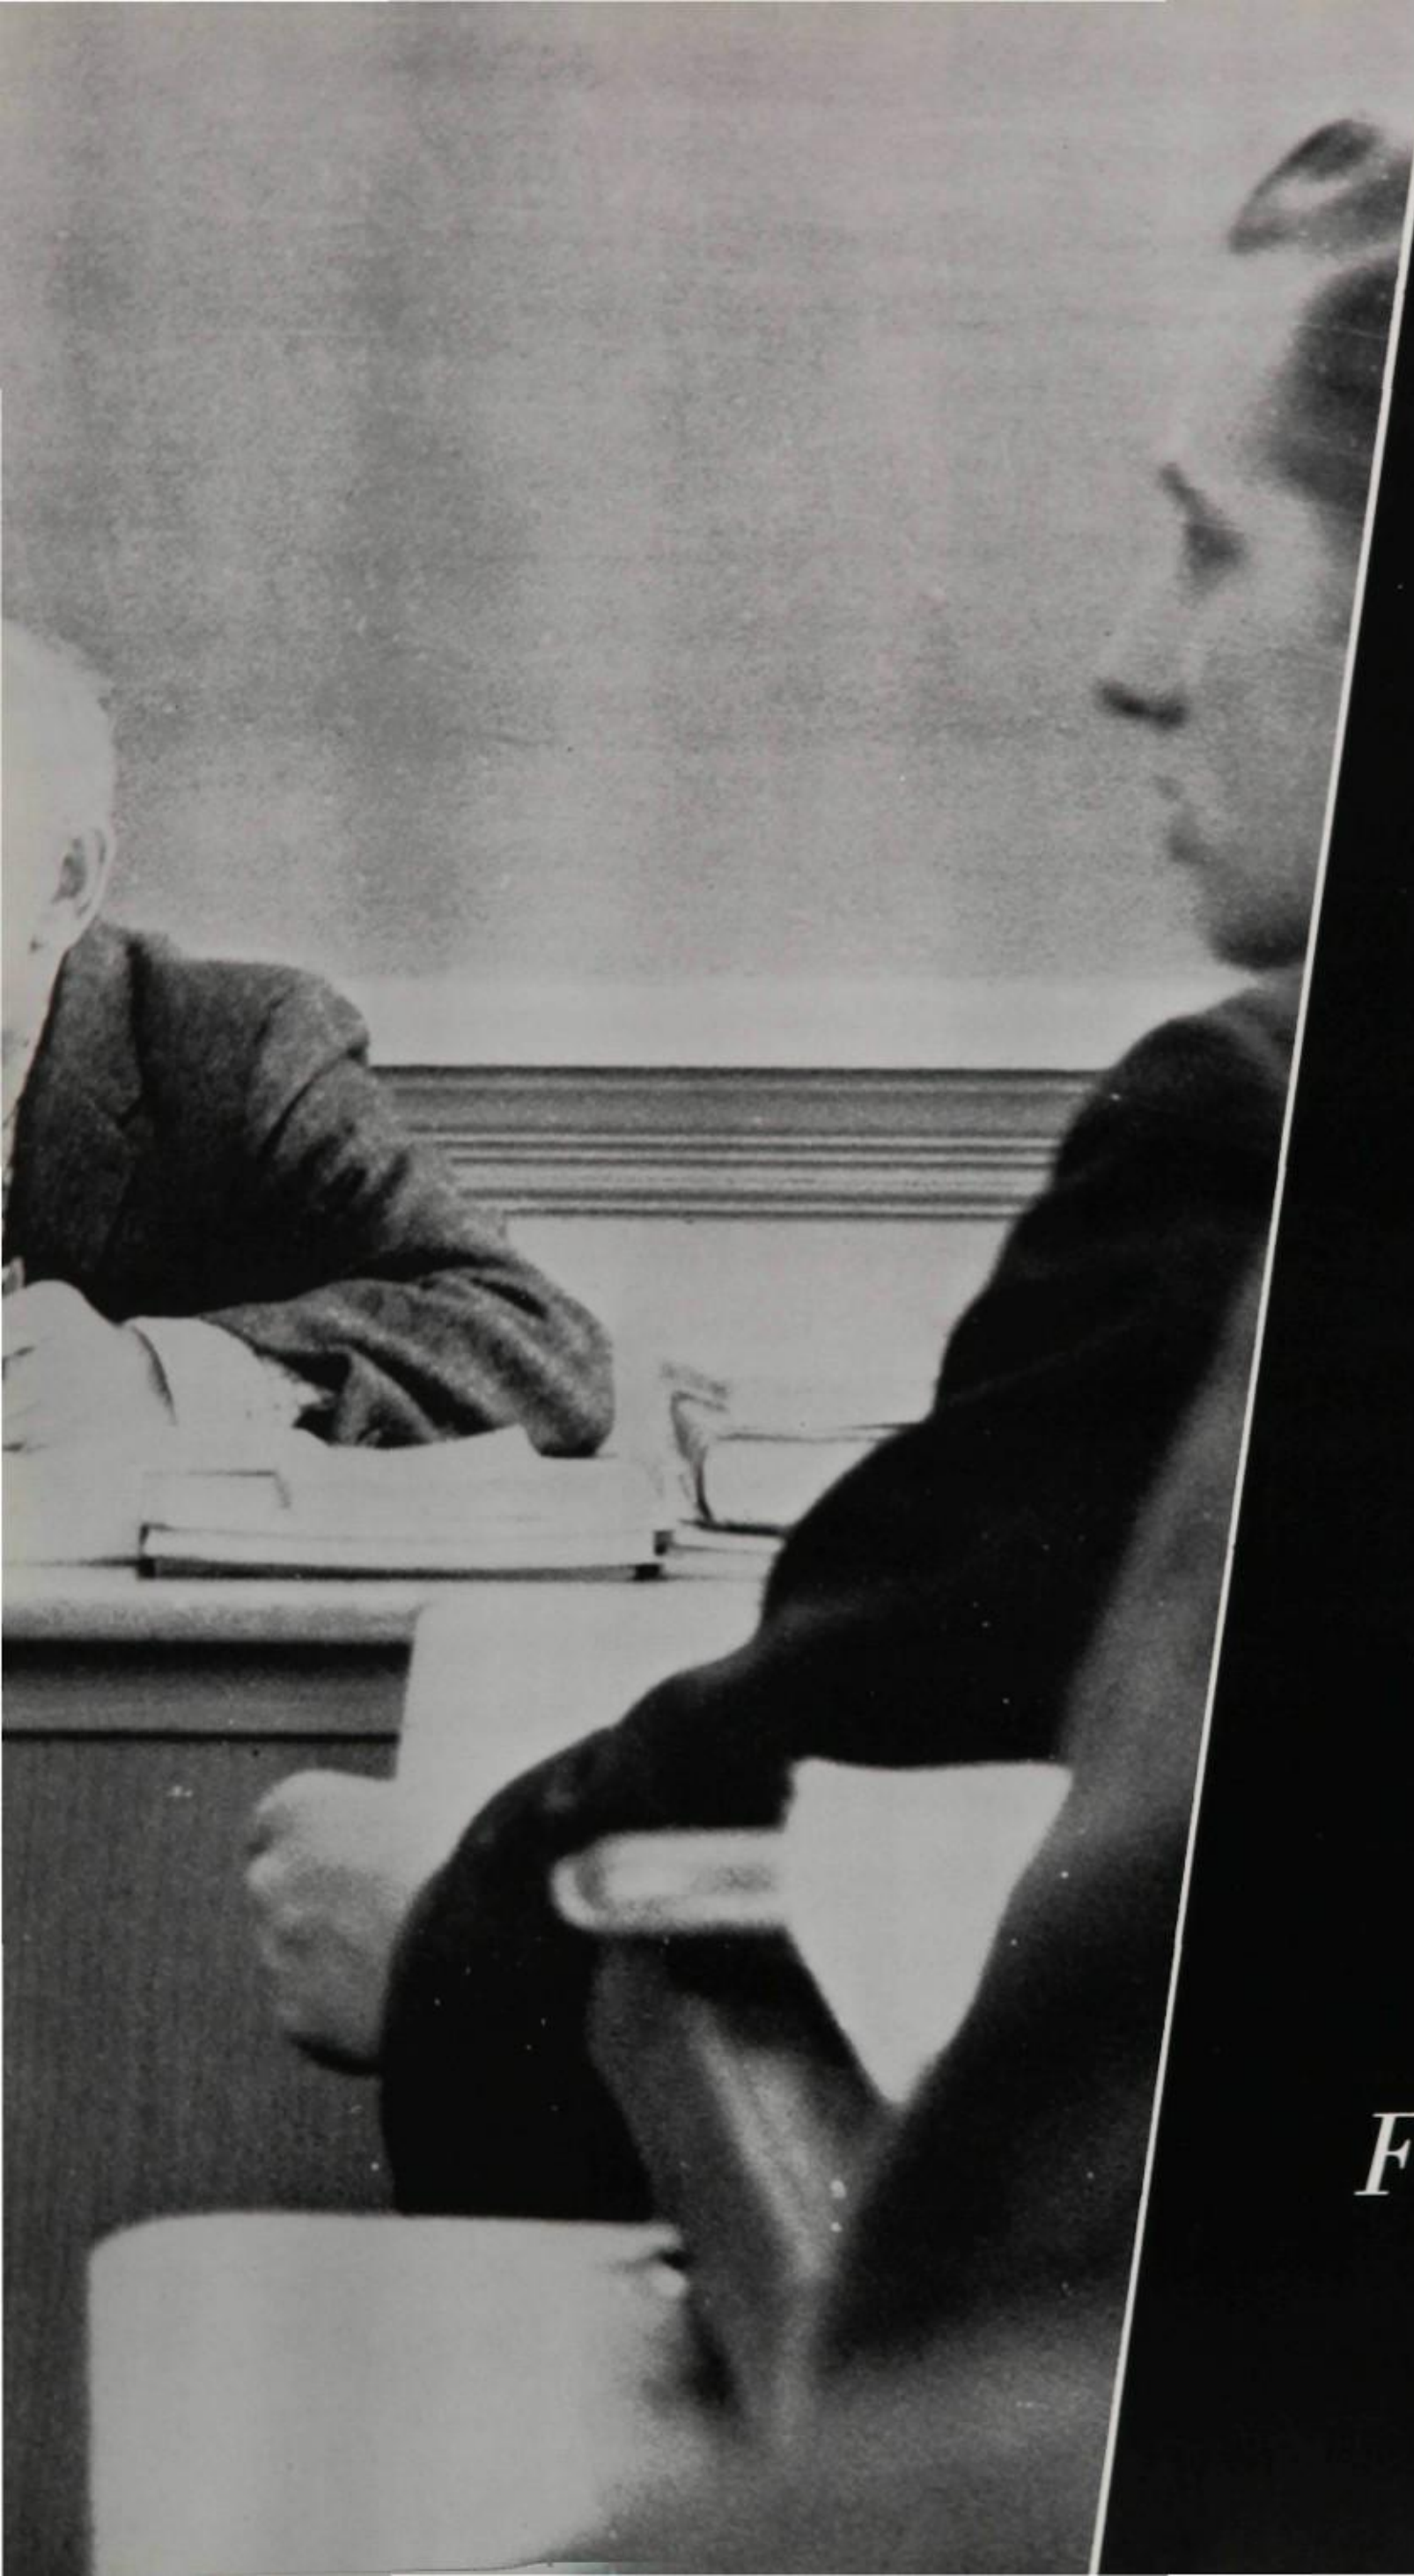

Seldom does a teacher play a part in so many aspects of a boy's school life at St. Mark's. Members of the Class of 1963 have known him throughout their careers, as teacher, advisor, coach, yearbook advisor—and friend. In each instance they have known a man of wit, understanding, and patience.

For this we dedicate the 1963 Marksmen to

Ludlow F. North

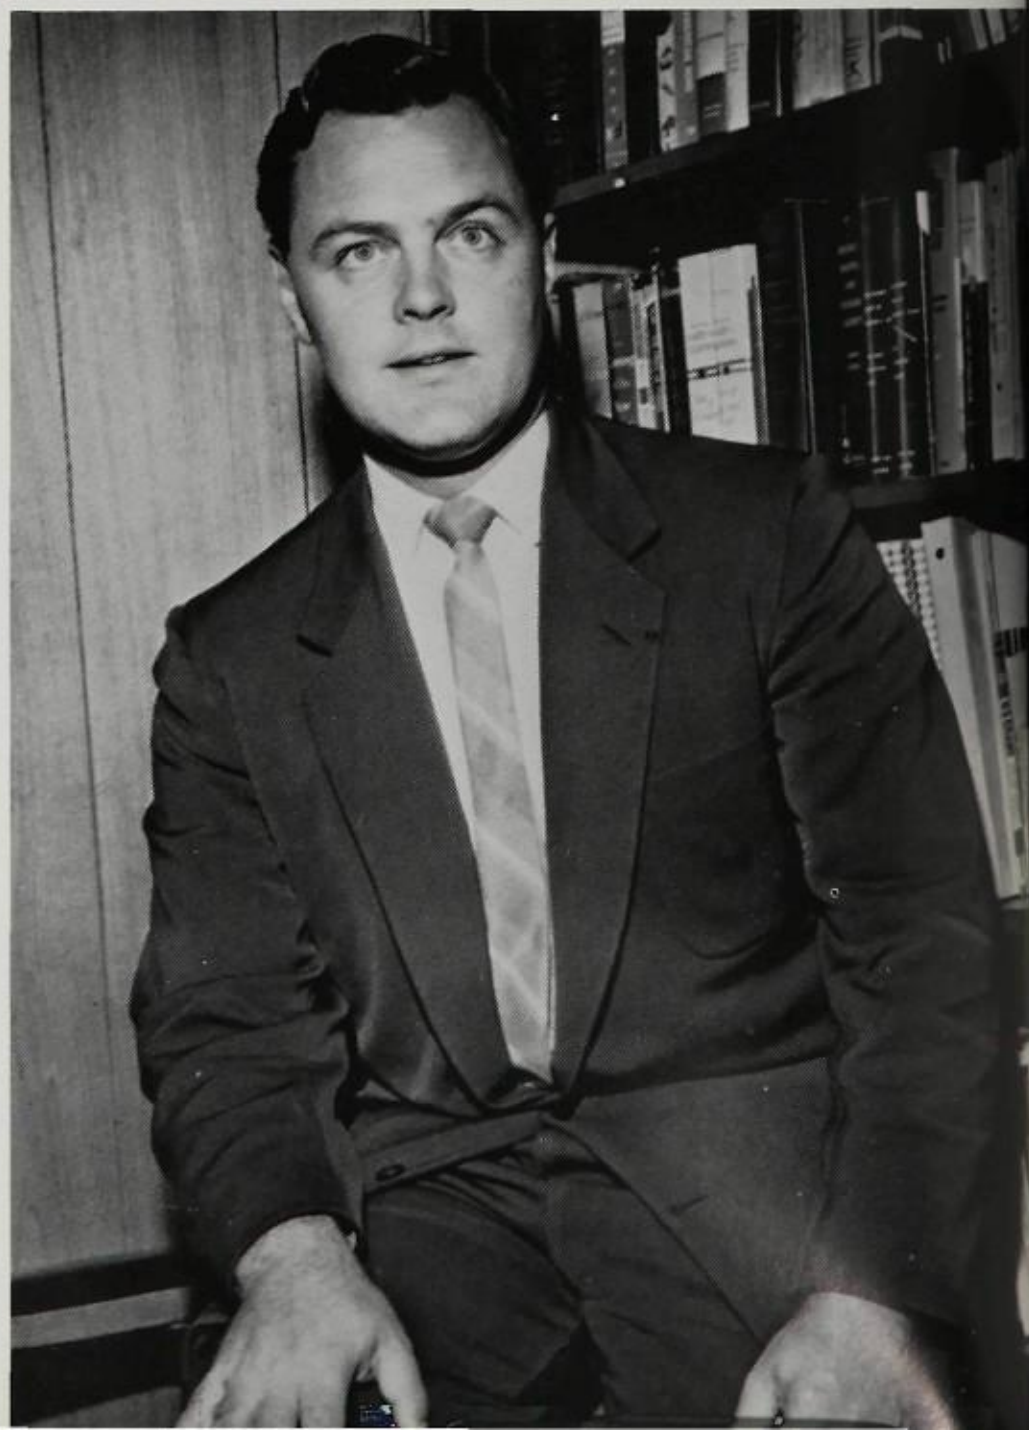

Faculty

Mr. Thomas Hartmann attended Phillips Academy, Andover, then went on to Princeton University for his B.A. degree. Before coming to St. Mark's, Mr. Hartmann held positions at the Hun School and the Tower Hill School. Since 1958, Saint Mark's, under Mr. Hartmann, has revised its curriculum, increased its enrollment, and created a $500,000 Scholarship Endowment Fund. Also, the Fine Arts Building and the extremely modern Science-Mathematics quadrangle have been constructed. Guided by its capable Headmaster, Saint Mark's can expect even more improvements in the future.

Christopher Berrisford received his B.A. and M.A. from Oxford and his M.Ed. from Harvard. Mr. Berrisford came to St. Mark's in 1957 as head of the History Department; previously he had taught at the University School in Victoria, B.C., Canada. In 1960, he was named to the new position of Dean of Students, and from there moved to Assistant Headmaster. Mr. Berrisford has made himself invaluable at St. Mark's as director of the Drama Club and as assistant soccer coach.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class continued its active participation in all phases of school life. The high percentage of Honor Roll students indicated the class's academic abilities, but the class was not content to make this its only area of endeavor. The members also took an active part in all other phases of school life.

In athletics, the Juniors were vital to the success that the SM teams achieved this year, an indication of the even greater success the teams should achieve next year.

In the area of the fine arts, the Class of '64 made valuable contributions. Class members were active in the Drama Club's presentation of Mr. Roberts and were also on the ReMarker staff. Again this year The Marque was under the leadership of the Class of '64. Also, Juniors were instrumental in the formation of a new activity—the book, movie, and play reviews aired over the closed-circuit TV.

Junior Dance

November 3rd was the date this year for the annual Junior Class dance. The Oriental theme of the dance provided an excellent atmosphere in the gym, where the dance was held. Soft drinks and 5000 fortune cookies served as refreshments, and the Don Hosek Combo provided the music.

. . . plenty of cold drinks, . . .

"The Sandbox" was presented by Juniors over the school's T.V. network.

Sophomore

Saint Mark's Class of '65 has proved itself to be a class of great promise. Its members have not confined themselves to being merely a member of something, but have made valuable contributions to whatever cause they have taken upon themselves.

On the intellectual side, the sophomores have placed more members on the Honor Rolls than any other class. The overall class average was also very high. Many Sophs were active in Science projects, and the athletic showing by the class was outstanding in all sports. Lest the class be criticized socially, the Sophomore Dance was said by many to have been the best yet.

The Class of '65 is not resting on its laurels, but every day is working to make itself a more useful part of St. Mark's.

The Class of '66 has distinguished itself at St. Mark's by taking an active part in school life during the past year.

Academically, Freshmen attained positions on both Honor Rolls, a difficult task indeed. Several members of the class also contributed regularly to the ReMarker and the Marque.

Despite a "perfect" 0-7 season in football, the Frosh fared very successfully in other sports. Freshmen held positions on the Varsity Golf and Swimming teams, and greatly helped the "B" basketball team to its winning record. The Frosh took their soccer team to a "conference championship," while the basketball team sported a record.

The Freshman Class kept busy with its own activities during the year. On Freshman Day members of the class decorated the football stands and staged a mock funeral for Kinkaid. The decorations for the Homecoming Dance were partly the work of the Frosh. Buying a cannon for football games and supporting a French orphan were also endeavors undertaken by the class.

The Class of '66 has proved itself ready for the Upper School, and much is expected of it during the remaining years at St. Mark's.

Sports

This year the St. Mark's football team accomplished what no other team in the school's history has been able to do: it won the Southwest Preparatory Conference crown. The Lions achieved the impressive 8-2 record, losing only to Jesuit and Kinkaid. Both of these games were played at the beginning of the season, an occurrence which was unfortunate, because the Lions undeniably improved as the season progressed. That the last six games were won by impressive margins testifies to this fact.

Football training camp, usually tortuous enough, was preceded by three months of voluntary weight lifting and isometrics to keep injuries at a minimum. The enthusiasm that marked such activities as these has been pointed out by many as the significant factor in the Lion's success.

With larger, stronger linemen and hard-running backs, the '62 season opened on September 7 against always-powerful Jesuit. Fumbling less than St. Mark's and scoring more, the Rangers set the Lions back 13-0 before 4,000 spectators. On the following week, fullback Bob Kohler paced the angry Lions through a 45-14 victory over Godley. Kohler repeated his performance against Lutheran by contributing four touchdowns to the first conference win, 61-20. The next weekend the Lions took on Kinkaid in what many people felt was the hardest-fought game St. Mark's had ever played; however, the Lions lost 26-14 in the last defeat they were to experience for the rest of the season.

For the next four weekends, conference and non-conference games alternated in the Lion's schedule. The first, a 28-6 conference triumph over Austin's St. Stephen's, was succeeded by a 20-14 victory over Gladewater. At this point in the season, the conference record was 2-1, and it was obvious that all the rest were "musts." Homecoming against St. John's on October 19 proved to be one of the most successful the school ever had, for Irby Rozelle led the varsity to a 34-6 conference victory. Following this game was a 52-14 rout of Our Lady of Victory.

The final conference game against Casady was still two weeks away, so the Lions had first to defeat Waco Reicher 30-6. The highlight of this game was a 90-yard punt return by John Vrooman.

Then, early in the Casady game, a new pass record of 80 yards was set: Phil Rader to Craig Williams. This play had the added significance of breaking an 8-8 tie and then leading the way to a 36-8 final score. The game was played before an unprecedented crowd at a road game. On this same night, St. John's defeated Kinkaid, throwing the conference into a three-way tie.

The Varsity football team of 1962 was proficient at accumulating honors, for it placed center Doug Owen, quarterback Phil Rader, guard Britt Kolar, and fullback Bob Kohler on the All-Conference first team. Appointed to the All-Conference second team were tackle Russell Reed and end Craig Williams. Back Tony Briggs and end Irby Rozelle received honorable mention.

The team also set numerous other records. Two of the most important—rushing and passing yardage—are now held by Phil Rader.

Thus the 1962 Varsity football team compiled a fine record for St. Mark's. This team will go down in St. Mark's history as the finest football team to this date, and it will be a long time before it is forgotten who put the first gold football in the trophy case.

The year 1963 brought St. Mark's its first undisputed soccer championship in the history of the school. This year's Lions, led by captains Bob Kohler and Craig Williams, went through the year with one thought in mind—winning the Southwestern Preparatory Conference crown outright. They began preparing for the Conference Tournament early in October, by entering in the Dallas Sunday Soccer League and playing such teams as state champions Monte Carlo, Rheinischerhof and Thomas Jefferson.

On February 2, play began in earnest with the North Zone Tournament against Casady. Ken Hicks scored both goals as the Lions defeated the Cyclones, 2-1.

Two weeks later, on February 15, St. Mark's journeyed to Austin for the Conference Tournament. The first game of the three that the Lions were to play in two days was against Kinkaid. With one minute remaining to play, the score was still 0-0, but finally Dick West passed to Craig Williams, who combined with Ken Hicks to score the winning goal. The Lions toughest opponents proved to be St. John's, who managed to hold St. Mark's to a 1-1 tie. After Bill Bailey scored early in the game, it looked as though the Lions were assured of success, but then late in the game the score was tied and remained that way after two overtimes. With only one tie marring an otherwise perfect record, the Lions needed a victory over Lutheran to win the championship. Hicks scored twice and Bailey once, to win the game 3-0 and the championship with a 3-0-1 record.

The overall record against secondary school opponents was eight wins, one loss and one tie.

The St. Mark's basketball team posted an 18-19 record for the 1962-63 season. Over one-half the games were played against stern AAAA competition, thus accounting for many of the losses. The Lions, coached by Bill Blakeley, opened with a 62-42 victory over AAAA Kimball, then captured the Plano Tournament, placing Don Donnally and George Bedell on the all-tournament team. Disaster struck in December as all-conference guard Bedell broke his ankle, and the cagers were without his services for two months. The Lions beat AAA Lancaster, then entered the Dr. Pepper Tournament. Losing the first game to Bryan Adams by four points, St. Mark's rebounded back to crush Rylie, only to be beaten by Texarkana, the eventual consolation champions. During the Christmas holidays, the cagers waxed the alumni twice and rolled by Greenhill 89-42. Losing to Garland away, the Lions came back in a rematch, shocking them 52-42. Jesuit was next, but the Blakeley boys were cold, falling 64-40. Friday, February 1, disaster struck again, this time in a different form. St. Mark's fell to St. Stephen's 57-50. This was the biggest blow of the season, and the Lions could not "get up" for the next game with Casady, falling short by two points, 38-36. The Lions returned to Austin the following week in a search for revenge, but they lost to Kinkaid. The season could have been over, but in true St. Mark's tradition the cagers came back and trounced St. John's 45-40, to knock them out of contention for the conference title. Lutheran followed in the same way. Three seniors, Don Donnally, Phil Rader, and Ronnie Tomlin, from the starting five, and reserve Craig Huston, played their last game of their high-school career. Phil Rader made the all-conference team, and George Bedell received honorable mention.

The 1962 St. Mark's cross-country team was undoubtedly the strongest team in the school's history, compiling a very impressive record against state-wide competition. The Lions opened the season in October with a decisive victory over Jesuit followed by a second place in the St. Mark's Invitational.

On November 3, at the University of Texas Invitational, the Lions placed third in a very close race behind Forest Park and San Diego. However, two weeks later the Lions bounced back to win the Kimball County Meet for the second straight year. The Lions were led by Terry Smith who placed first and broke the course record.

At the state meet in December, St. Mark's tied for second behind Keller. The Lions did a creditable job, placing Terry Smith, Marvin Moore, George Powell and Robert Olson in the top twenty. Their times for the two-mile course were some of the best established by St. Mark's runners.

At the conference meet, the Lions finished the season by polishing off St. John's for the second year in a row.

This year marked the real beginning of the St. Mark's swimming team. After several unsuccessful attempts at organization, the school finally found itself with a necessary ingredient for a swimming team—a coach. Coach Whatley was faced with the task of developing a swimming team from one swimmer. Previously, the only swimmer had been Ken Arthur, but, through a concentrated program of exercises, Mr. Whatley turned such eager hopefuls as Tom Barr, Tommy Hansch, Paul Hackbarth, John Winer, George Underwood, and Bill Perkins into a very respectable swimming team, that, with this year's experience, will doubtlessly attain its due recognition next year.

Student Council

Book Store

The St. Mark's Student Council began school this year with several hundred dollars. The book store and concession machines started to make money. Then the Student Council began to function as it should. It donated the new upper school lounge and enlarged its stock of books and school supplies. Throughout the year the Student Council has done its best to facilitate the operations of the school, and this is the real job of the organization. This year's student council has done more to make itself an essential part of school life than any of its predecessors.

The cast of Mr. Roberts

Drama Club

The Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. Chris Berrisford and President Mike Wolfram, presented the community with a full and varied program during 1962-63.

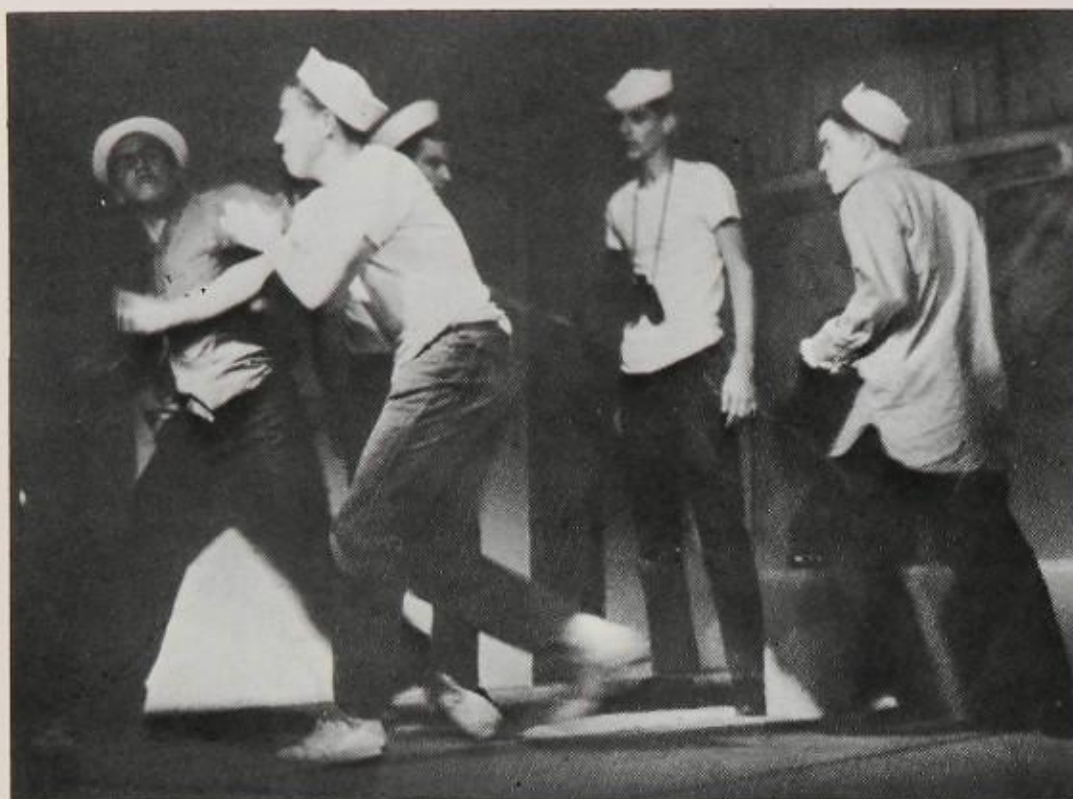

In November, the club together with the school, brought a troupe from the Dallas Theater Center to give two performances of The Importance of Being Earnest in the Fine Arts Building. It was the first play presented in the round at St. Mark's.

The full Drama Club Committee, including Mike Wolfram, Ken Hicks, Steve Skiles, and Mr. Berrisford chose Mr. Roberts as the first student production of the year. The twenty-member cast rehearsed one month and a half under the direction of Mr. Berrisford and Mr. Preston Jones who came from the Dallas Theater Center to help. Jim Cogar, Mike Wolfram, Ken Hicks, and Bob Jacob received top billing on the two production nights of February 28 and March 2, but they were well supported by such members of the crew as Tom Beard, John Godfrey, George Powell, Rick Rutledge, and Ben Giles.

The men backstage who helped make the play a success were Mike Phillips, Arthur Tappan, Bob Hansch, Leon Kaplan, and Ley Waggoner, while Bruce Martindale worked from a front angle as student director.

For its second play of the year, the Drama Club chose to present the difficult Rhinoceros by Eugene Ionesco. Direction fell largely to Mr. Jones who planned a late-spring production.

The Drama Club used its enormous membership to its full capacity, either in acting, staging, or promoting, for the first time. With many experienced underclassmen, the thespians can look forward to another good year as well as look back at a successful '62-'63.

The Choir

St. Mark's had a complete, four part choir again this year. The boys sang the Ceremony of Carols on the second of December at school, and again on January the thirteenth in Fort Worth, at All Saints' Church. The choir sang its Christmas concert, the Service of Nine Lessons and Carols, on December the nineteenth. Selected choristers participated in the Dallas Civic Opera presentations of Othello and Pagliacci. On March the sixteenth, the choristers presented the opera Noye's Fludde, by Benjamin Britten. May the fifth was the date of the last major performance of the year, the Spring Concert and the presentation of Vivaldi's Gloria.

Debate Club

The Debate Club, reorganized this year, participated in interscholastic debate. The club, under the leadership of Tom Lichten and James Strauss, is coached by Mr. Millsaps. In the first semester, the school sent teams to two tournaments. The first, at Hillcrest High School, the team of Strauss and Lichten won four debates and lost none. The team of John Muir and Robert Hoffman went 4-2, and Tom Craddock and Richard Pullman were 1-3. In the Bryan Adams tournament Strauss and Lichten went 2-2 while John Bromberg and Hoyt Wilkinson were unable to win a debate. The topic was the National Forensic League topic for the year: "Resolved that the United States should promote a common market for the Western Hemisphere."

French Club

The French Club came under the auspices of Miss Ann Hershberger this year. Meetings, held at homes, included programs featuring foreign students, slides of Europe with accompanying travelogues, and general discussions. At Christmas the club presented a program including the reading of the Christmas story and a short farce presented by students.

Spanish Club

Under the guidance of Kenneth Brown and Ricardo Hidalgo the Spanish Club has devolved into one of the finest organizations at St. Mark's. The members elected Bob Kohler president, George Powell, vice-president, and Willy Wilson secretary-treasurer. Meetings were held at the homes of students where guest speakers spoke on such things as Spanish literature and flamenco dancing. During the Christmas holiday, the Spanish Club undertook a project donating food and clothes to a Mexican family of West Dallas.

The St. Mark's Cum Laude Society obtained its charter three years ago. Membership in the society is based on the academic achievement of the student. The top twenty percent of the senior class can be admitted. Half the members are notified at the end of the junior year, while the rest are admitted at the completion of the senior year. The St. Mark's chapter is governed by a board which includes Messrs. Hartmann, Berrisford, Nelson, Morgan, Connolly, White, and Father Levinson.

The American Field Service makes it possible for high school students to live abroad for three, six, or twelve months, depending on the specific branch of the AFS. Through this international scholarship organization, St. Mark's has sent a member of its junior class abroad and has received a foreign student into its senior class for the past four years.

Audience approval

The St. Mark's Band, under the direction of George H. Springer, had probably its most successful season this year. Two concerts were given—the Christmas concert on a serious note, and the Spring Pops concert in a much lighter vein. At the Christmas concert, President Bill Bailey played a difficult Herbert L. Clarke trumpet solo, while Rick Wagner played a bass drum solo specially arranged for the band by Mr. Springer.

Before the Christmas concert, the band gave its annual performance on the Julie Benell T.V. show. Not only enjoyment but also experience was gained by all those who participated.

In the Spring, the combined bands gave the Pops Concert, a success in every respect.

This year for the first time the band entered some of its members in local contests, sending Bill Bailey and Steve Skiles to the All-Region Band tryouts, and entering the complete band in the S.M.U. Band Festival held in April.

Besides having a productive year as concerts went, the St. Mark's Band introduced music and its enjoyment to many St. Mark's students.

Audio-Visual Department

The Audio-Visual department of St. Mark's was established this year under the expert guidance of Mr. Gerald McVey. The department handles all special film effects needed in the school and is in charge of the equipment in the Science Lecture Hall. Throughout the year it presented movie and play reviews, panel discussions, and Drama Club advertisements over the closed-circuit television unit. Next year, the department promises to include more boys and do an even greater job.

Mr. McVey advises Bill Rogers on the use of the T.V. camera.

Must good design be expensive?

Definitely not! Take this chair and table, for example: from one of our most progressive furniture manufacturers, the flowing lines and uncluttered proportions are carefully crafted to reflect the designer's respect for material and moment. Yet, both chair and table are reasonably priced at $35. and $49. respectively. They typify our own buying philosophy: "Good design is not expensive; it's just hard to find." Moral: next time you're shopping for good contemporary design, try us!

PRIVATE SHOWING

of An Important Public Event

This year East Texas Motor Freight will put into service more than $5,000,000 worth of new over-the-road equipment to bring Dallas Industrialists and Merchants the most efficient, fastest motor freight service in the Southwest.

ETMD Staff members explain features of the firm's new custom-designed Diesel tractor to veteran ETMF drivers at a Dallas meeting to introduce the units. More than 200 of these tractors are scheduled for delivery this year. Tags on truck identify components especially engineered to ETMF specifications.

cooled homes!

Even the hottest days are cool and comfortable when you have Carrier central air-conditioning. But Carrier is more than cooling—it's actually a "good health" home improvement buy. "Good Health" because you sleep better, feel better day in—day out. "Good Buy" because Carrier's unique Time Guard Circuit starts the compressor unloaded resulting in lower cost comfort. Today, more than ever, Carrier Residential Weathermakers give you more cooling per dollar! Visit us soon—see for yourself!
